

strengthening families

GEORGIA

One-Hour Parent Trainings: Protective Factor Module Descriptions

Title of Training: Strengthening Parental Resilience

Description: This Strengthening Families Georgia workshop helps parents use strategies that build resilience every day to help support themselves and their families.

Title: Strengthening Social Connections

Description: This Strengthening Families Georgia workshop provides families with practical ideas based on sound research to build positive relationships, a circle of support and strengthen their social connections.

Title: Strengthening Knowledge of Child Development

Description: This Strengthening Families workshop helps parents explore ways to build their parenting skills and better understand children and their behavior.

Title: Finding Concrete Support in Times of Need

Description: This Strengthening Families Georgia workshop helps parents identify strategies to help when they are in need and links families to concrete support resources.

Title: Strengthening Social and Emotional Competence in Children

Description: This Strengthening Families Georgia workshop helps parents encourage their child's self-control skills, build trust and healthy relationships, and use positive discipline.

Georgia Association for the Education of Young Children

The protective factors modules were re-developed for parents by the Georgia Association for the Education of Young Children (GAEYC) through funding from United Way of Greater Atlanta. Individuals who have completed the Strengthening Families Georgia (SFG) Training of Trainers: Protective Factors for Parent and Community Leaders and have fulfilled their commitments to SFG are approved to present the parent modules and Parent Cafes. A list of approved individuals to present parent modules is located on the Families page on www.strengtheningfamiliesga.net. Trainers approved to present to professionals are located on the website's Professionals page.

Strengthening Families Georgia is continuously supported in part by the Georgia Division of Family and Children Services through the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Children and Families, Community Based Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act (CFDA 93.590). Points of view or opinions stated in this document are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official position or policies of the Georgia Division of Family and Children Services or the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Children and Families, Community Based Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act (CFDA 93.590)."

Georgia Division of Family and Children Services
Prevention and Community Support
Safe Children. Strengthened Families. Stronger Georgia.